

The Cipher Challenge

In every cipher, the dollar marks the door. Three doors you must open. Three secrets you must know. Unite them. Only then will the truth uncloak.

$ thealgorithm

A warrior faced 3 beasts. He defeated each in all possible orders. Count them.

$thesalt

I'm made of words but speak in numbers. My name is a domain.
Count each of my parts, and you'll find the four digits I hide.

The final piece lies beneath the surface. Not in what it shows, but in what it knows.

$ the rule

"Give a person a wordlist, and he'll fail. Teach them to prepend, and they'll pwn forever."
