The Cipher Challenge

In every cipher, the dollar marks the door. Three doors you must open. Three secrets you must know. Unite them. Only then will the truth uncloak.

$ thealgorithm

A warrior faced 3 beasts. He defeated each in all possible orders.
Count them.

$ thesalt

> I'm made of words but speak in numbers. My name is a domain. Concatenate each of my parts, and you'll find the sixteen digits I hide.

The final piece lies beneath the surface. Not in what it shows, but in what it knows.

$ therule

"Give them a wordlist, and they'll fail. Teach them to prepend, and they'll pwn forever."
